PRESS RELEASE

The Colony Dance Connection

The Colony Parks & Recreation Department is now accepting registrations for the 19th year of The Colony Dance Connection at The Colony Recreation Center. These classes are designed to provide dance training to students in a fun, loving, and non-threatening environment while allowing children to express themselves creatively through the art of dance. Classes will begin the week of September 1st.

The Colony Dance Connection offers classes in Tap, Ballet, Jazz, and Pompom. Classes are designed for children as young as 3 years and up. In addition, The Colony Dance Connection will be offering a Mom and Me Tap and Ballet Class for moms and children from 2 to 3 years old. Class fees begin at $40 for a half hour class. There is a onetime $45 registration fee.

For more information regarding The Colony Dance Connection and class schedules, please contact Kathy Scalise at (972) 422-9986 or visit www.tcpard.com.
