

PRESS RELEASE — Jan. 17, 2014

Communications: 972-624-3156

Daddy and Daughter Dance set for Feb. 1

THE COLONY, Texas — Sparkling tiaras, pink balloons, and little girls with curls will set the tone for the upcoming Daddy and Daughter Dance sponsored by The Colony Parks and Recreation Department.

Dads, uncles, grandfathers and caregivers can enjoy a special evening with their little girl (ages 3-12) on Saturday, Feb. 1. Participants will have the option to purchase tickets for one of three dances being held at The Cascades Event Center, 5909 Stone Creek Drive.

Once again, little girls will be treated like “Daddy’s Little Princess.” To help each young lady get in touch with their inner-princess, the girls will be greeted by Cinderella and presented a special gift from her royal highness. Guests will also be treated to light refreshments, games, and, of course, an evening of dancing.

“The annual Daddy and Daughter Dance provides an opportunity for fathers and daughters to dress up and enjoy a great evening together,” said Lindsey Stansell, special event coordinator for The Colony Parks and Recreation Department. “This event is a great way for young ladies to strengthen their relationships with their fathers.”

Tickets for the Daddy and Daughter Dance are on sale now at The Colony Recreation Center, 5151 North Colony Blvd. Participants can purchase tickets for either the 3 p.m., 5 p.m. or 7 p.m. dance. The cost is $35 per couple and includes one 4x6 photo. Tickets for additional children are $10 each. You can also purchase a corsage for $12, a boutonniere for $4, or both for only $14.

Tickets are going fast, so register today! For more information, contact The Colony Recreation Center at 972-625-1106.

###