Calling all bakers: Contest at Holiday in the Park

THE COLONY, Texas — Are you looking for a way to show off your baking talents? The Colony Parks and Recreation Department invites you to participate in the annual Holiday in the Park Baking Contest!

The contest has three categories: cookie, pie and candy. There is no entry fee required for the contest so feel free to enter as many times as you would like. The top three winners from each category will be announced on stage and presented with ribbons.

Entries must be submitted to the designated Baking Contest area between 6 and 7 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 6. Judging will begin promptly at 7:15 p.m. with awards at approximately 7:40 p.m. Contestants must submit a whole pie, one dozen cookies, and/or one dozen candies for judging. Entries must be submitted in disposable containers as they will not be returned after judging.

Contestants are encouraged to register in advance. Registration forms can be found online at <http://thecolonytx.gov/Depts/PARD/SpecialEvents.html>, at The Colony Recreation Center or by emailing events@tcpard.com.

For more information about this or other special events in The Colony, please call the Parks and Recreation Department at 972-625-1106.
