

Police Department
CHIEF JOSEPH T. CLARK

Press Release – For Immediate Release

The Colony –

When students return to school on August 23rd, The Colony Police will be strictly enforcing the state law that went into effect on Sept. 1, 2009, that prohibits the use of cell phones and other communication devices while driving through school zones that are in effect. Citizens will see new signage that reads: "cell phone use prohibited" near all school campuses. Violators can be fined up to $200.
