CHIEF JOSEPH T. CLARK

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DATE: November 17, 2009

SUBJECT: Police Explorer Competition

Saturday, November 14th, 2009 members of The Colony Police Explorer Post #5151 participated in an advanced skills competition held in Plano, TX called "Plano X". Explorers from The Colony Police Department participated in ten different scenarios, ranging from a Robbery in Progress, Suicidal Person, Gang Fight, and a Narcotics Investigation among others. The Colony Police Explorers competed against nine other teams from departments such as San Antonio PD, Dallas PD, Allen PD, Coppell PD, Forest Hill PD, Richland Hills PD, Irving PD, and UT Dallas.

The Colony Police Explorer Post #5151 earned a second place trophy for its achievements during this competition. San Antonio PD received first place and Coppell PD received third place. Once again, The Colony Police Explorers were prepared and capable of beating teams from departments such as Dallas PD and Irving Pd who have bigger Posts with more members and large training budgets.

As always, The Colony Police Explorer Post #5151 is open to new members who may be interested in what Law Enforcement is about. For further information, see our website at www.thecolonytx.gov.
