

PRESS RELEASE

ARMED ROBBERY – WASHINGTON MUTUAL BANK – 07/07/2008

On 07/07/2008 at about 5:21PM Officers responded to multiple alarms coming from the Washington Mutual Bank, 4707 State Highway 121, The Colony. Upon arrival it was determined that an armed robbery had just occurred. The suspects are described as a white male wearing a white ball cap and sunglasses and a black male wearing a straw cowboy hat. Both subjects are about 5'8" tall in their early to mid 20s and both displayed black, semi-automatic handguns. No one was harmed. The subjects took currency from the bank and from customers who were in the branch at the time of the robbery. The subjects fled in an unknown direction in an older model, black, SUV possibly a Blazer.

Investigators believe this may be related to an earlier robbery which occurred in Plano at the Wachovia Bank at Park and Parkwood. The suspect descriptions are the same in both incidents.

Anyone with information is encouraged to call the Colony Police Department at 972-625-1887.
