Celebrate MUNICIPAL CLERKS

Thank you to the over 1,000 municipal clerks across Texas who help keep our cities running, organized, and safe.

The municipal clerk serves as administrative director and as a member of the city's management team

Attends city council meetings, prepares agendas, and records the minutes

Meets all legal requirements for posting agendas and publishing legal notices

Administers municipal elections

Serves as custodian of city records including minutes, resolutions, ordinances, and community history

Serves as emergency management support personnel

Depending on the size of the city, and in addition to the duties listed above, the municipal clerk may also serve as city manager, human resource director, finance director, or municipal court clerk
